A WAIKIKI LUAU

At Captain Gartenberg's Residence.

Most Successful Entertainment—
List of Hawaiian Dishes Served.

Captain and Mrs. Gartenberg gave luau on Saturday evening, to many friends, at their residence in Waikiki.
The house was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and other plants.
From the centre of the dining room, at the ceiling hung a large cluster of dates and the yellow fruit was set off by a back ground of the date palm leaves. The luau, within which the luau was served, was constructed of many flags, which drooped over the tables. Among these wreaths and Japanese lanterns were entwined. The lanai stood within a few feet of the beach, so that the effect of waves breaking upon it, and the moonlight presented a brilliant picture.

The luau was arranged by Thos. C.
McGuire and wife, and among the dishes served were the following: Puaa kalua (pig roasted in the ground), puaa hoolua (pig roasted in the ground during the previous twenty-four hours), moa laulau (chicken roasted in leaves), i'a lawalu (fish cooked in leaves), i'a maka (raw fish), hee (raw squid), wana (sea-eggs), papai (crabs), alanihi (black crabs), opihii (yellow native oysters), opae (shrimps), limu koku (sea weed), iramona (kukui nuts ground with chili peppers), kalelo (shrimps and cocoa-nut), haupia (native starch with cocoa-nut), koelepalau (sweet potatoes and cocoanuts), ki (ti root), okolehao.

Music was furnished by a glee club and dancing followed the luau.

Some of the guests who were present were: Col. and Mrs. Mills, Capt. and Mrs. Slater, Lieut. and Mrs. Ketcham,

STREET CAR BLOWN UP.
Five of the Six Passengers Sustain Broken Legs.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30.—A combination car on the Willison avenue line was blown up by a powerful explosive between Scoville and Quincy streets tonight at 9:30. There were six passengers on board, five of whom sustained broken legs. The other passenger and the crew of the car escaped without injury.

The explosion lifted the car entirely off the track, destroying the trucks and demolishing the flooring. The car fell again on the trucks and in such a way as to imprison the injured passengers.
These were rescued by the crew of the car. The report of the explosion was heard on the public square three miles from the scene. There is no clew to the perpetrators of the disaster.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIAR-RHOEA.

A PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.

From the Times, Hillside, Va.
I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—

Good
Salesmanship.

ISN'T everything to good store keeping; even a good salesman falls when he tries to sell cautiously, clothing that isn't made as it should be. In the long run only the best clothing pays; especially when the best clothing can be had at the price of the next best. Our clothing is so well made, so attractive in appearance and looks so desirable that it requires less energy and breath and persuasion on the part of the salesman to sell it.
After we have sold it once, we can sell it with still less effort to the same customer. It is the kind of clothing that brings your customer back again and again—the kind with which we can build up a lasting trade. And that is what we are doing in all our lines.
